Once upon a time in a big dark forest lives a poor woodcutter with his two children, Hansel and Gretel, and their stepmother. They are very poor and have no food to eat.

00.37 sec.

Woodcutter: What can we do? We have no food for our children!

Stepmother: We have to take them into the wood and leave them there.

Woodcutter: I am not agree!

Hansel: Have you listen what they say?

Gretel (cries): Yes, they want to abandon us!

Hansel: Don't worry! I have an idea! I go out and I fill my pockets with white pebbles.
Let's go to bed.

The next morning they all go into the forest and Hansel drops the pebbles on the path.
In the middle of the forest, once they sleep, the woodcutter abandons them.

Gretel (cries): Hansel we are alone!!

Hansel: Don't worry! We follow the white pebbles and we find our way home!

2.02 min

When they arrive home, their father is very happy to see them! But the next day they all go into the forest again.

2.14 min

This time, they can't find the path! They arrive in a cottage covered with cakes and candies and they hear a voice.

2.26 min

Witch: Nibble, nibble little mouse. Who's that nibbling at my house? Come here.

Hansel&Gretel: We're two siblings and we're very hungry!

Witch: Me too! Come and enjoy the meal! (I want to eat this boy!)

2.50 min

While the siblings sleep, the witch carries Hansel to the stable and locks him in a cage. Every day the witch goes there to check on Hansel. She wants him fat.

3.09 min

Witch: Gretel checks the oven, see if it is hot enough!

Gretel: I don't know how to check it! Let me see!

Witch: Uff, silly girl! Just look and do what I do!

3.28 min

Gretel gives the witch a strong push right into the oven and runs down to free Hansel. They are very happy.

They also find a box full of pearls and gold in the house.

Finally, they arrive home: the father is very happy and the stepmother is dead!

They are rich now and they live happily together!
